South Goa District Disaster Management Authority
Collectorate of South Goa

Order

No. 80/2/DMC/Ord-DMA/2010

Sub: Policy on Earth Digging in South Goa.

In view of the recent incident at Zuarinagar, Mormugao, Goa it is imperative to formulate a policy on Earth Digging in South Goa District, as to ignorance and recklessness of contractors risk is always involved in earth digging activities.

A policy in this context is more than expedient to avoid any probable calamity thereby ensuring safety of life and property of the people and protection of environment.

Hence, I, Shri G. P. Naik, District Collector and Chairperson of South Goa District Disaster Management Authority, in exercise of powers conferred under sub-sections (iii), (iv), (v), (vi), (xviii) & (xxix) of Section 30 and sub-sections (h) & (m) of Section 34 of the Disaster Management Act, 2005, in order to avoid any untoward incidents at any of the areas in South Goa District direct any organization, Government Departments, Government undertakings, private bodies, local bodies or any individual or legal person or persons to abstain from any sort of earth digging unless the No Objection Certificate is produced from the owner of the land to be dug to the Deputy Collector and Sub-Divisional Magistrate of the concerned Sub-Division and a specific written permission is obtained from the concerned Deputy Collector and Sub-Divisional Magistrate of the Sub-Division for the purpose.

The Deputy Collector and Sub-Divisional Magistrate of South Goa District are directed to conduct summary inquiry into the matter and record in writing about their personal satisfaction that no danger is involved in earth digging as applied before him and only in such situation may grant permission to digging of earth.

The Superintendent of Police shall render all help and assistance in compliance of this order and in case of any instance of breach of the order shall invoke provision of Chapter X of the Disaster Management Act, 2005 immediately and take to its logical ends.

Given under my signature and seal of this office, on 29th April, 2011.

Margao.— The District Collector and Chairperson, G. P. Naik.
